Chapel Talk

A Happy New Year to you all.

So here we are again, stepping into a New Year and thinking about how to live it and wondering what the future holds. For some, the New Year brings excitement at the prospect of new opportunities and for others it brings anxiety in the face of difficulties and uncertainties. It doesn't seem possible that 2025 has come and gone! Christmas is over, festive decorations are down or soon to come down - nativity scenes are dismantled and put back in the cupboard till next year! There can be a very real sense of anti-climax, even sadness as we enter a new year, with more cold, dark days ahead and perhaps not very much to look forward to. BUT, although the nativity scenes with the baby Jesus lying in His manger may be relegated to the cupboard, Jesus himself, is alive! Of course, that's the whole point of the season we've just celebrated; Jesus is no longer the baby in the manger - He is the risen Saviour, who invites us to enjoy a living relationship with Him every day of this new year. And that's a message of joy and real hope for 2026. Live 2026 with Jesus. I, and millions more around the world, can't live without Him!

God bless you all, Ian.

SNAPP

February Fiesta at the Village Hall in aid of Educateperu 28 February at 6.30pm

£20 for 3 courses (wine and soft drinks available too)
(based on my original idea of safari suppers and so tables of 6 whose occupants move around after each course)

For those of you unfamiliar with my work, the school Santa Maria that I built out in Pachacútec, Peru 18 years ago, now has 800 students, aged 4 – 16. It is one of the poorest zones in Peru – a cool desert, sand, sand and more sand but no rain. 80 of the poorest of those children are “godparented” by lovely people in our village, my family and friends in the wider world.

The school has to charge a small amount in order to pay the teachers for the afternoon, as our school is open from 8.00 am – 4.00 pm, but it's on State land and the State pays the teachers, but only up to their timetable, which is half a day.

The other advantage of course, is that being open all day, enables the parents to work more hours. If you don't work, you don't eat, in Pachacútec. So “godparents” pay £22 per month and this includes a hot lunch for the god parented child each day.

However, there are always other needs too: new shoes, a door to the back of the “house” (think “shed”) so the family are not so cold and wet, medicines etc. More help is always needed – which is what I discover while I'm visiting homes and talking to the parents.

You will be able to see a powerpoint too on the night, showing you what I do and where all profits go in order to help those families. There will also, as usual, be a table of Peruvian goods for sale, so please bring cash, no Contactless, QR code etc available!!!

To book tickets, please telephone me on 01508 498050/07518 386383 or email me at jillbignellinperu@hotmail.com.

Wassail at the Saxon Club and Meadows A village tradition!

Come and join us at the annual Wassail on Friday 2 January 2026 at 6.00 pm meeting first at the Saxon Club before walking to the orchard and apple trees, with our ‘noise makers’ e.g. a pan lid, whistle or musical instrument. Don't forget a torch and sturdy footwear as the ground may be uneven. After the Wassailing ceremony to encourage the health of our apple trees, we'll return to the Saxon Club for mulled fruit punch. All are very welcome. If there are any queries, please contact Anne Fry on 07939 504896 or you can email her at annemfry@gmail.com

Saxlingham Village Hall Quiz and Chips Saturday 7 February

News from the Pews

A church full of stars - Have you seen the amazing array of stars decorating the church yet? Only a few days left, as the display is dismantled on 5 January—please ensure you retrieve your star(s) by 12 January.. An enormous thank you goes to all involved creating such an amazing display. Ideas for next year are already being discussed – please email me with any suggestions. The display has been admired by many people—some have come to visit the church simply because of the display

As you may recall, the carolling around the War Memorial and the carol service raise funds for charity and this year the stars theme inspired us to pick Norfolk charity, Star Throwers. Thank you for your generations donations totalling just over £275.00

Foodbank - Thanks to those who continue to donate items - they are gratefully received. As always, more items are needed and the list is: Tinned items: tomatoes, spaghetti, fruit; long life milk; microwave rice; shower gel; male/female deodorant; shampoo and toothpaste.

Thank you.

Mental Health Awareness in the Community Training

South Norfolk and Broadland Council are running free mental health awareness training sessions to help create supportive communities as part of our mindful towns and villages project.

Mindful towns and villages offer safe spaces for people to have an open conversation about their mental wellbeing with individuals willing to support their communities. People from within the community (such as small local businesses, community groups, sports clubs, residents who like to support others etc.) will have completed low level mental health awareness training and can use this knowledge to provide support and signpost to other services as needed. These individuals are called Wellbeing Champions.

We want to highlight that we do not expect Wellbeing Champions to give any additional time to this role; these conversations will occur naturally as part of daily life. Additionally, we do not expect Wellbeing Champions to take on the role of a counsellor or diagnose any conditions. They are simply there for a low-level chat and to signpost as needed.

The details of our next course are:

Title: Mental Health Awareness in the Community

Provider: South Norfolk and Broadland Council

Date: 27 January 2026

Time: 6.00 -8.00 pm (please arrive 10 minutes early)

Location: The Mill, Hempnall, NR15 2LP

The training is 2 hours long with a break, and offers basic education about stress, different mental health conditions, why people may struggle and signs you may notice when someone is having a hard time. You will also learn how you might approach someone and start a conversation. Finally, you will learn about the Council's Help Hub and other services that can offer support so you can effectively signpost. You will receive access to a private area on the Council's website with further supporting website links and a supporting resource to use when having conversations.

If you are interested in booking a place, please go to the following booking link:

Decorating Help Needed at the Village Hall

Many of you will be aware that there have been numerous changes and developments at the village hall recently. The new trustee committee is committed to making the village hall the heart of our community once again. We recognise a significant opportunity to expand weekday services for everyone in the village and we are using the data provided by our community to develop a strategic plan for growth, which we will be publishing in February.

To help us create a welcoming, high-quality environment for all, we are asking for volunteers to join us in redecorating the hall this January. Every area needs to be refreshed and upgraded so we can offer the best possible experience to everyone who uses this space. The work will take place during weekdays and some weekends, with a completion deadline at the end of January. If you can spare even a few hours, please get in touch with me and let me know your availability. We are flexible and will coordinate a schedule that works for our volunteers—you truly will make a difference.

Please email me with the dates and times you're available, and I will begin putting together a calendar of painting duties.

As a thank-you, we will provide food and drinks throughout the day and express our heartfelt gratitude on behalf of myself and the entire committee. Thank you so much for your support!
